We Have a New Sponsor.....

And You Need to Know Something About Them.....

W&K Container is internationally known for providing containers for overseas shipping. One of their divisions produces storage facilities which are ideal for track and field coaches who need to store equipment near their outdoor track. Whether your track is ancient, brand new or in the developing stages, storage space is always necessary for:

Hurdles

Starting blocks

Pits

Rakes, Shovels

You name it.....

Vaulting Poles

Standards

Javelins, Discs, Shots, Hammers

Carts

Located in California, CEO John Weigmann is a long time track and field fan (daughter Kelsey was an NCAA I heptathlon qualifier and three time Heptagonals multi-event champion) who will be delighted to meet your track and field storage needs.
