Outlook for 2016 Meeting

Team USA selected itself from the recent US Olympic Trials/97th USA national championships in Eugene. Spots were offered to athletes and several athletes declined nomination. Coaches added a discretionary selection. Team USA has only three returnees from last year's lineup in Bernhausen and this is decidedly a lineup-up of youngsters. In fact the 2016 team averages 22.6 years of age, likely the youngest American teams ever.

Central (IA) grad Kurtis Brondyke and Wichita State grad Austin Bahner (11th and 8th at the recent US Olympic Team Trials) are the elder statesmen at 27 and 25. The remaining five USA team members are current year college students. This group is led by Stanford soph Harrison Williams, 5th at the NCAAs (8032) whose vault 'nh' at the Trials negated a top 5 score. Eastern Michigan's Solomon Simmons (who competed last year as Solomon Ijah) brings consistency to the team. His solid 6th place finishes at both the NCAAs and Trials were stamped him a big meet performer. NAIA champ Kale Wolken (Doane) has plenty of skills and Oregon's Mitch Modin posted a 200+ point PR at the Trials. Rice's Scott Filip had elbow surgery last year and returned to win the Pan-Am Cup and placed 10th in Eugene. Thomas FitzSimons, who was 9th last year, is the alternate.

Germany's Team Zehnkampf, sent Mathias Brugger, vet Rene Strauss and youngster Tim Nowak to the European championships in Amsterdam. The latter two will start in Fayetteville. Strauss, 29, will be making his 4th Thorpe Cup start, he was 3rd (7907, 7818) in the past two. Nowak, 21, was 3rd at the IAAF World junior champs in Eugene (7980) in 2014 and scored 7838 with the big tools in Götzis.

24 year old Patrick Scherfose (4th at Ratingen) is a solid big meet performer (4th in last year's rout in Bernhausen-7693 and 4th earlier this season in Ratingen-7651). The remainder of the guest team are as young as Team USA.....average age 22.6 years. There were eleven German decathletes enrolled and active at American universities this past spring. The most notable were Big Ten champ Luca Wieland of Minnesota (7784) and American Conference winner Luis Hanssler of Memphis (7369). Neither are on the Team Zehnkampf roster.

The selection meeting for the German roster came at the Stadwerke Meeting in Ratingen which was plagued by bad weather (heavy rains). Steffan Press and Georg Zwirner, a veteran of 8 Thorpe Cups, will coach the German team.

As always, there is no way to forecast the outcome of this meet.

There are four reasons why the visiting German team will be favored:

- experience: in the form of Rene Strauss, 29 and Patrick Scerfoss.
- they have a timing advantage since it is now the height of the German CE season and late for the Americans who peaked for the NCAAs and US Olympic Trials earlier this month.
- how does one say 'Momentum' in German? Team Zehnkampf has won the last six (six!!!) men's Thorpe Cups. Strauss and Scherfoss have been on several of those winning teams. Last year's margin was razor thin.

There are four reasons why team USA will be favored:

- It's time to return the Cup to it's proper place.
- Harrison Williams has redemption on his mind.
- the USA team has had time to rest and recover from Eugene.
- young legs, (five college students)

Nothing is ever taken for granted at the Thorpe Cup and it is always hotly contested. In 1999 the meet was decided by a miniscule, microscopic, tiny, infinitesimal, atomic...(you get the picture!) five points. One German coach described the margin as "a puff of wind." It was the closest team match anywhere in decathlon history. In 2010 Team Zehnkampf won by two puffs of wind, just 13 points out of a total score of over 77,000. The 2006 winning USA margin in Manhattan was a mere 57 points. Last year's German winning margin was just 58 points. This one could very close. It'll be no 1993 "Shellacken in Aachen." It's always intense, and that's why it's the planet's best team affair.

Thorpe Cup History

Now the world's most important nation vs. nation team decathlon, this meet has been variously called the VISA CUP Meet or the JEEP Challenge. And in 2007 officially took the name of The Thorpe Cup in honor of 1912 Olympic Decathlon Champion Jim Thorpe, Carlisle, PA

The concept of an annual team match was initially conceived by VISA-USA team coach Harry Marra and Team Zehnkampf coach Claus Marek in 1993. This is the 20th of a series of annual international team decathlons between the USA and Germany. The US teams holds a 13-7 W-L advantage, but the German team has won the most recent six matches ('10, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15). Last year's affair in Bernhausen was a blowout with the host up 3000 points at the finish. 3000!!!

In the current series, the first meeting was arranged in Aachen, Germany in 1993 where Stefan Schmid of Germany and the VISA USA team were victorious. The American team won 6 of the initial 7 team battles. One, the 1999 affair, also in Aachen was decided by a mere 5 points. Team USA got back on the winning side in 2002 with a major win in Walnut, CA, led by Tom Pappas and repeated in 2003 in Bernhausen.

The 2004 meet, scheduled for Kansas State U, was cancelled by the German federation (DLV) in June, 2004. In 1996, with the meet in Edwardsville, IL, the USA squad set a world 5 man team record averaging 8121.4 points per man.

Only Kip Janvrin, Mike Maczey and Pappas have won the individual title more than once. See below.

In the years before the current series, USA and German decathlon teams met twice. Team USA won both, with Bruce Jenner getting a world leading score in 1974 in Tallinn, Estonia (tri meet: USA/USSR/ Germany). Team USA won again in 1983 in Baton Rouge, LA. So, counting the two earlier team meetings, the Americans hold a historical 15-9 national team advantage.
