NEBRASKA TRAVELS

Walton, Wagner Score at NACACu23, IAAF Jrs

Hello Again.... With the Thorpe Cup looming next week (July 29-30, Fri-Sat) in Fayetteville, AR, a pair of Nebraska Huskers placed at international decathlons last week on two different continents. On July 16-17 Cody Walton, a 21year old soph from Forest Lake, MN, won the silver medal at the NACACu23 affair in El Salvador. His 7409 score (behind Canadian Rostam Turner's 7601) was 211 shy of his 3rd place Big Ten effort. He had opened the season with a win at the Kansas Relays. UCLA soph Zach Bornstein/Canada (7169) captured the bronze in a six man meet.

At the IAAF World Junior Champs (7/19-20) in Bydgoszcz, POL German star Niklas Kaul, the world u18 champ, came from 200 points back at the break to nail the gold with an 8162 effort (junior hurdles/ implements). Kaul's 71.59m/234-10 javelin (far from his best) was decisive. First day leader Maksim Andraloits/BLR was the runner-up at 8046. Nebraska freshman Cale Wagner, 18, Seward stood 5th at the break and ultimately placed 8th virtually duplicating his USA Jr winning score (7512) with a 7510 total. Flying under the radar was Canadian Nathaniel Melcher who was in contention and whose 47.95 400m turned heads before a 'dq' on a lane violation. He ultimately placed 22nd.
