2008: Captured IAAF World Indoor heptathlon (6371) in Valencia, then won US Olympic Trials (for a 2nd time) with PR 8832 score in Eugene. It was Bryan's 3rd USA national championship. In 2007 dnf's at USA champs after placing third at Götzis with 8493 in spite of discus snafu and at IAAF World's in Osaka (leg injury in high jump). Bryan opened 2006 outdoor season with a victory at Götzis (8677), the first American victory there ever. He had been runner-up at the IAAF world indoor heptathlon. 'Dnf'd at USATF in Indianapolis due to dehydration. Bryan's 2004 year was a dream. Not only did he capture the US Olympic Trials with a PR score of 8660, but he then won the silver medal at the Olympic Games in Athens behind Roman Sebrle with an 8820 score, becoming America's 23rd Olympic decathlon medalist. Of Americans, only Dan O'Brien has ever scored more. Bryan then was 2nd (again to Sebrle) at France's DecaStar to capture 2nd in the IAAF Grand Prix Combined Events Challenge. And only at 25!

2005 was even better as Bryan won a 2nd USA championship (using a world best 55.87m discus sling in the process) followed by the IAAF world title in Helsinki (8732 pts), all of which notched him a #1 world ranking for the season. He opened the 2006 campaign with a silver medal at the IAAF indoor championships in Moscow.

Bryan was 1999 National USATF Junior champion and Pan-American Jr Champion as freshman at Azusa Pacific where he is coached by Kevin Reid. As a sophomore (2000) he was both NAIA indoor pentathlon and outdoor decathlon champion. Made dramatic breakthrough in April, 2001 with 7980 PR win at Mount SAC Relays, then placed an eye-opening 3rd at the USATF nationals. Injured he dnf'd the IAAF Worlds in Edmonton and was 13 a World University Games in Beijing, China. In 2002, after knee surgery in April, he recovered quickly and was 2nd at USATF nationals with PR 8230, the nation's leading collegiate score.

He opened the 2003 campaign with a world leading 8225 effort at Atlas then made the USATF champs a 'breakthrough' affair getting 8482 points behind Tom Pappas. It earned him a world ranking. A leg injury curtailed his IAAF world champs meet.

Bryan opened the 2004 indoor meet with a 3rd at Estonia's Reval Cup and then was runner-up at the IAAF world champs in Budapest with an eye-opening 6365 score. He notably upped his long jump PR to 8.05m/26-5 in June, 2004. Has won 11 of 27 career meets.

In 2008 Tom placed 3rd at US Olympic Trials to become first American to make 3 Olympic teams in the decathlon.

Won USA national titles (2006-07) and has won a record tying 5 title overall. Injuries have bedeviled the 2003 IAAF world champ. A ruptured plantar fascia in his left foot felled him in Athens. The foot healed by early 2005 and he resumed training when his left shoulder gave him trouble. He had an operation which effectively wiped out the 2005 season. An MRI revealed further problems in mid-2005 (torn labrum) and another operation was necessary. In 2005 Tom married heptathlete Kim Schiemenz in 2005 and they welcomed a daughter in 2006. Put ten workmanlike marks up at USATF champs and came away with 4th national crown in 2006.

Tom had shoulder surgery in early 2004, conducted a modest indoor season, then opened the outdoor campaign with a 8732 effort (2nd) place at Gotzis, Austria, 110 down on Roman Sebrle. His 2nd day in Gotzis was a lifetime best and included a PR 13.90 hurdles. He then made a second U.S. Olympic team with an 8517 effort in Sacramento behind Bryan Clay. His left foot problems surfaced in Athens ruining any Olympic medal chance.

Tom won the IAAF World indoor heptathlon in Birmingham, UK in March, 2003 then opened outdoor season with PR 2nd place finish at Gotzis, 8585. He followed with a huge PR 8784 win at the USA nationals in Palo Alto to become the #2 scoring American ever (behind Dan O'Brien). In the 2003 Nationals Tom became the first man in history to jump over 26 feet (long jump), over 7-0 (high jump) and over 17-0 (Pole vault) in the same meet. He then captured the IAAF outdoor world championships in Paris becoming the first decathlete to win indoor and outdoor world titles in the same season. He also won the IAAF Combined Events Challenge for 2004.

2002 was a super season for Pappas as he won 3 of four major meets (USA nationals-his 2nd title), USA vs Germany and DecaStar in Talence, France, His only loss was an opening season meet to world record holder Roman Sebrle in Gotzis. He turned the table on the world's lone 9K man at the end of the season in France. For his efforts he was ranked #2 in the world. Tom also achieved a bit of notoriety in 2002 by becoming the first to win both USA indoor and outdoor titles in the same season and, at Gotzis, became the first decathlete in history to jump 25-0, 7-0 and 17-0 in the three jumps.

In his freshman year at Lane Community College the lanky Pappas won the national and Pan-Am junior titles. He repeated as conference champ a year later, then transferred to the University of Tennessee. Coached by Bill Webb, he filled out and won the SEC crown in >97 but an injury relegated him to 8th at the NCAA meet. Tom red-shirted in 1998 in favor of knee surgery. As a Volunteer senior he opened eyes indoors then posted a collegiate record (8463) at the opening outdoor meet getting 8 PRs impressing both Dan O'Brien and Daley Thompson.. A heel bruise slowed Tom yet he had little problem winning the NCAAs (8184) and finishing 2nd at USATF (8187).

2000 saw Tom win the US Olympic Trials with a PR 8467 then finished a solid 5th at the Sydney Olympic Games, beating both world record holder Thomas Dvorak/CZE and Atlanta silver medalist Frank Busemann/GER. Shoulder operation in early, 2001, only competed in first 7 events at USA nationals. Then placed 3rd in season's only completed decathlon, the Goodwill Games. Tom won the 2002 indoor USATF heptathlon title and outdoor title, after getting a PR with 2nd place effort at Gotzis, 8583,

Brother Paul (U of Oregon) scored 7303 in '97, and younger brother Billy (7745) make the Pappi the highest scoring family in American history (ave 7953). Tom and Billy took over the brother-brother world lead in mid '03, with 16,529 points.
