LEBRON, ANDERSON WIN D-II, D-III Moore is Prep Champ

Hello Again....Three additional indoor nationals were held during the second weekend of March and provided promising results. The most notable: Nick Lebron, Newington, CT, a senior at Southern Connecticut State, pasted a deep NCAA D-II heptathlon field in Winston-Salem, NC netting a meet record 5765 points. A trio of juniors: Nathan Hancock/Minn-Mankato; Dillon Schrodt/ Nebraska-Kearney and Justin Balczak/ Lake Superior St went 2-3-4.

Lebron's solid seven marks (7.22 7.12m/23-4½-pr 13.03m/42-9 2.06m/6-9=pr 8.20=pr 4.50m/14-9 2:37.90) featured four individual wins and 3 career bests. He took the lead over a 14 man field during the shot and won by more than 300 points.

Fifteen started at the NCAA III champs in Lincoln, NE where Brandon Zarnoth/Wisconsin-Eau Claire and Zach Anderson/Wisconsin-Stout, the two favorites who went 1-2 two weeks earlier at the WIAC champs, traded places. Anderson, Frederic, WI, trailing by 29 points after the vault, ran himself to the title with a PR 2:39.18 making up 102 points. One of the early leaders, '12 champion Richard Roethel/Christopher Newport, vault nh'd and first day leader Scott Lisa/TCNJ was 8th.

At the NYC Armory University of Arkansas signee Gabe Moore, a senior at Freeport HS, FL, outlasted a field of 11 at the New Balance national prep champs with a 4054 pentathlon win. His victims included Jack Lint, Columbus Academy, Westerville, Nick Lebron/S Conn St (left) and Zach Anderson /Wisconsin-Stout( right) were D-II & D-III champs.

OH and Steele Wasik/Lakewood, OH, a UCLA signee.
