INDOOR GRAND PRIX

2/14 ..temperatues were in le digits (yep, -9°F in the am) outside, but inside the Reggie Lewis Center in Roxbury, MA Ashton Eaton heated things up in a pair of events. Prepping for next week's Millrose Games, Eaton contested the vault and dash.

Pole Vault- opened at 5.20m/17-¾ and cleared on his 2nd attempt quite easily. The bar went to a PR equalling 5.40m/17-8½ and Ash popped over on his 2nd attempt (at 5:04 pm) presenting an interesting issue...he was due to run the 60 meter dash in 30 minutes. The entire 5 man field advanced to 5.55m/18-2½. He had good 2nd (a little bit under the pole) and 3rd attempts and one can see him clearing this height outdoors. His 3rd miss came at 5:18 pm, so plenty of time to prepare for the dash.

60 meters- in lane 2, a tepid start and easing at the finish relegated Ashton to 8th in 6.74 seconds, in a race won by Mike Rogers (lane 4) in 6.53. Eaton's wife, Breanne was 3rd in the long jump (6.34m/20-9¾) and 3rd in 300m in 37.47. Oregon Track Club teammate Andrew Wheating won the 1000m.
