WOLKEN WINS NAIA NCAAs Next

Hello Again.....The quite before the storm....A pair of nationals were conducted over the weekend as we awaited a trio of NCAA title meets scheduled for March 13-14 (Friday-Saturday).

Over the first weekend of March a pair of national collegiate title meets were offered. Doane College junior Kale Wolken defended his NAIA national crown in Geneva, OH cruising (3:09.50 in 1k) to a 5330 score and 269 point win over James Bullock of Embry-Riddle. Wolken, 21, Tecumseh, NE, was 4th in 2012 and scored 5491 points in his win a year ago.

The national junior college (NJCAA)champs were held at the Convention Center in Albuquerque with Michael Samuels of South Plains(TX) getting the nod over teammate Steven Barze, 4877 to 4818. Results below.

Rhode Island junior Mike DiMambro won the IC4A title in Boston with a 5272 effort. There were 6 meets nationwide.

The NCAA lineup is listed below.
